Get in line, grandma: Young people are adopting geriatric hobbies

If you're under the age of 80 and your ideal Friday night involves a cup of Sleepytime tea, a heating pad, and your bed — you're not alone.

In fact, you might just be a trendsetter. Millennials and Gen Zers — burnt out from the pandemic, a dicey job market, and high cost of living — are increasingly dipping their toes into a more mature lifestyle ...
