Montclair Affordable Housing Opinion Survey

The Economic Development Committee ("EDC"), a subcommittee of the Township Council, worked with township staff to develop a survey to gather the opinion of township residents on Affordable Housing. The hope is that a wide swath of residents from all over town will submit responses to this confidential survey so we can get a comprehensive view of opinions from those living in all areas of town. The data received will then be analyzed to assess what Montclarions think about Affordable Housing. Based on the information received from the survey, the EDC will make recommendations on housing to the full Council.
